Summary

Product manager who has built artificial intelligence products rather than managed them from a distance. I ran an enterprise platform for automation, analytics and autonomous agents that was sold to companies and governments across the United States and Asia, then spent two years building and launching five products of my own on large language models and agent workflows. I work directly with the models, the application programming interfaces and the evaluation of what comes back, and I have eleven years of ordinary product discipline behind that: research, roadmaps, measurement and a team to lead.

Skills

- Artificial Intelligence Product Strategy & Roadmap
- Large Language Model Products & Agent Workflows
- Agent Harnesses, Context & Memory
- Evaluating Model Output Quality
- Enterprise Platform Product Management
- Zero-to-One Launches & Customer Discovery
- Measurement, Adoption & Reporting (Mixpanel, GA4, SQL)
- Leading Product Managers, Analysts & Designers
- REST Application Programming Interfaces, Webhooks & JSON
- AI-Assisted Delivery: Claude Code, Figma Make & Linear

Experience

AI Product Consultant & Founder 01/2024 to Current
Design Lime · Antler MENA & UAE-based companies Dubai, UAE

- Built and launched five artificial intelligence products of my own. Two of them, Replyless.ai and mndr.ai, are used by 1,000+ business users between them.
- Took Replyless.ai, an email client built on large language models and agent workflows, from nothing to 70+ early users through the Antler MENA residency, selected from 5,000+ applicants.
- Work hands-on with artificial intelligence agents: agent harnesses, agent context and memory, and workflows that handle text, images and documents together.
- Built inboxjoy.online, an email and marketing automation platform, including an automated content pipeline that researches, writes and publishes without a manual step.
- Led ImpactAIQ from discovery to launch and set the measures it was held to. The product generated $100K+ in revenue.
- Validate ideas through customer discovery before committing engineering time, and connect systems directly using REST Application Programming Interfaces, webhooks and JSON.

Head of Product 04/2023 to 12/2023
Gaian Solutions Hyderabad, India

- Owned MOBIUS, an enterprise low-code platform for automation, analytics and autonomous agents, sold to companies and governments across the United States and Asia, including telecom and smart city deployments.
- Managed the agentic side of the platform on the back end, where the problem was making generated output reliable enough for enterprise clients to depend on.
- Led a team of product managers, business analysts and designers, and owned the roadmap and pricing for a $2M product portfolio.
- Worked directly with the CEO on how an artificial intelligence platform was positioned and explained to non-technical buyers.

Senior Product Manager 01/2021 to 03/2023
AppX (Y Combinator-backed) New Delhi, India

- Owned products used by 1M+ active users, running the roadmap, the experiment programme and the measurement behind both. Churn fell 12% and acquisition cost fell 30%.

Founder 09/2017 to 12/2020
Super.Page Hyderabad, India

- Built a platform from zero to 5,000+ users and owned its pricing and commercial model. Acquired by AppX, a Y Combinator-backed company.

Systems Engineer 07/2015 to 08/2017
Accenture Hyderabad, India

- Gathered requirements and mapped processes for enterprise and government clients through testing and release.
- Worked on a digital transformation programme with the Indian Customs Department, recognised with India's Ease of Doing Business national award.
